

BASEBALL—SPORTS OF ALL SORTS—BOXING

Joe Welling was outpointed by Milburn Saylor in ten rounds at Detroit. Saylor had the better of six frames, two were even and in the remaining two Welling had a shade. Larney Lichtenstein's lightweight was not outclassed. He gave a clever exhibition of blocking and was not marked. This was Detroit's first battle in ten years.

Johnny Kilbane, feather champ, led Benny Leonard at the end of ten rounds in New York, but the verdict would have been reversed had Leonard possessed confidence. He clinched continuously, even when things were coming his way, and appeared awed by the champion's reputation. Leonard landed the hardest blow of the fight and also opened a cut over Kilbane's eye.

Charley Ellis of Cleveland won the Interstate Three-Cushion Billiard League title by defeating August Kleckhefer in the second block of their match, 56 to 35. He had a high run of nine and went out in 58 innings. The total score of the match was 100 to 85.

Bob Burman, driving a Peugeot, won the 204-mile sweepstakes road race at Oklahoma City, Okla., in 2:50:06. Dave Lewis was second in a Stutz, and John Raimy and Eddie Hearne, driving Case cars, were third and fourth respectively.

Woodlawn, with a score of 2,854, rolled into the lead in the Illinois state bowling tourney. Harold Lampert took the lead in singles with 700.

Jimmy Kilroy, the North Side fight manager, has added a great unknown to his string. He mills at 145 pounds and wants to take on Freddie Gilmore, Jimmy Cassidy, Spike Kelly or Bud Logan. Ever Hammer is the only fellow who ever finished even with Kilroy's mystery, who has been cleaning up regularly in private bouts on the North Side.

RESULTS YESTERDAY

American League.—Cleveland 5, Chicago 4; Philadelphia 3, Washington 1; New York 6, Boston 4; Detroit 5, St. Louis 2.

National League.—Boston 13, New York 8 (7 innings); Brooklyn 7, Philadelphia 4; Cincinnati 10, St. Louis 9.

Federal League.—Brooklyn 11, Baltimore 1; Pittsburgh 8, St. Louis 2; St. Louis 9, Pittsburgh 7.

In the next four days the White Sox have an excellent opportunity to tighten up the race in the American league. Detroit will be here for a quartet of engagements, and at present the Tigers lead the locals by three games. New York, in second place, is two games back of Detroit.

The Jennings gang will take a lot of punishment before halting right now. Hughie has the happy faculty of getting his men out in front each spring, but this season they seem to have more stability. The pitching is better than any a Tiger crew has received for four years, and the batting is the same old smashing attack. Veach has lined up besides Cobb and Crawford and is pacing step for step and hit for hit with this pair of mastodon maulers.

But the Rowlands are no easy proposition. There is greater batting strength present than South Side fans have seen for many years. It does not rely on the pitchers blanketing the enemy in order to cop a pastime every few days. A goodly proportion of the victories so far have been earned by sound clubbing, though in the past few games the pitching has improved greatly.

Rowland faces the Detroit series with Faber, Russell, Benz, Wolfgang and possibly Scott in prime condition. Jasper can also be relied on for a well-pitched game if the older fellows fall down on their assignments.

That last game went to Cleveland
